

SAP Successfactors

Introduction

An integration with SuccessFactors allows you to read and write information to the ATS. You can request the below credentials from your account manager to integrate.

Your account must have REST and oData APIs enabled with full permissions.

Required Details

To create an integration, you require the following information:

- Username
- Password
- Successfactors Company ID